NOMINATION FORM
ARTHUR “RED” MOTLEY EXEMPLARY TEACHING AWARD, 2013-2014

The purpose of the award is to recognize faculty who are outstanding teachers of graduate and undergraduate students in the College of Liberal Arts. Eligible faculty members include current CLA professors who have been at the University of Minnesota at least five academic years (including the current academic year) and have not been awarded the “Red” Motley teaching award within the past twenty years.

At least five CLA graduate and/or undergraduate students must nominate an individual for the award. To nominate, students sign and provide the information designated below. Either five students may each complete a nomination form, or five students may sign a single form.
